

Welcome to Incusa

INCUSA, Industrias del Cuarzo S.A., a mining company created in 1961 belongs to the Saint-Gobain group. It currently mines the European largest feldspatic sand deposit in the north of the Province of Segovia, in Carrascal del Río. INCUSA has the great fortune to count on a young team of stable and motivated employees. A day-to-day effort, a full and steadily commitment of each one in the company, the desire to see things improve and a deep will to innovate , make INCUSA a company in full development and largely open to future.
